

Finding a suitable job

Imagine you want to apply for an apprenticeship in the United Kingdom.

First of all, scan this QR code and find out about the different types of apprenticeships that are available in the UK (You need to scroll down on the website to find the information. Use a dictionary, if necessary.

<https://www.se-apprenticeship.co.uk/types-of-apprenticeships.php>

Write down 5 types of apprenticeships that you would be interested in:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

Now try to find an apprenticeship you can apply for. Open this website:

<https://www.findapprenticeship.service.gov.uk/apprenticeshipsearch>

Search Browse choose "browse" if you want to search by category

Keywords (optional)
Can include job title, employer or reference number enter your favourite job here

All

Your location
Enter postcode, town or city or use current location

London (City of London) choose an English city (e.g. London)

Within

England

Apprenticeship level

All levels

Only show

Disability Confident

for maximum results, choose "England" here

If you have found a job description that interests you, find out

- what your tasks will be.
- which qualifications and skills you will need.
- the employer's address.

Write a covering letter and a CV for this job.

Use the useful phrases from Worksheet 5. For extra help, you can use templates to write your texts.