Teil B: Reading Comprehension, Mediation, Language in use and Writing

I Reading Comprehension

I.1 Britain's most popular museums

What museum should the teenagers visit?

Read the statements (1 – 5) and match them with the museums (A – F). There is one more museum than you need.

	Statements	Museum
1	Barbara likes riding her bike.
2	Phillip's hobby is drawing and writing.
3	Karim wants to spend a night at a museum.
4	Amy likes being outside and is interested in insects.
5	Lisa's hobby is painting pictures and looking at paintings.

A Manchester Art Gallery Manchester's Museum of Art and Costume has 25,000 works of art. It is great for kids who love creating their own junk art and dressing up as historical characters.	B Natural History Museum It is really a must. We have got a collection of 70 million plants and animals. It is also famous for its Dinosaur Gallery.	C Cycle Museum Pedal back into history at the Scottish Cycle Museum. We have an excellent collection of bicycles including a model from 1868 and some Victorian tricycles.
D The Cartoon Museum Come to our workshop and make a mini-comic. Create your own character story.	E Horniman Museum and Gardens Please come and visit our gardens and see hundreds of butterflies in the new butterfly house.	F Museum of Childhood We invite you to our magical museum sleepover in June. There will be storytelling along with puppets and toys.

I.2 Sherlock Holmes Museum

Read the text and answer the questions in 1 to 7 words or in numbers.

Are you interested in detective stories? Come and visit the Sherlock Holmes Museum. It is a must for both young and old Sherlock Holmes fans.

As many fans know, Sherlock Holmes lived at 221b Baker Street, London. Now this house is a museum. All the rooms look like those described in the stories about the famous detective.

Visit the museum, sit in Sherlock Holmes' armchair by the fireside, read one of the famous crime stories or look at his bedroom. You can also see his many belongings.

Questions:

1 Where is the museum?

2 What was Sherlock Holmes' job?

3 What can you do at the museum? (Name three things.)
