The Big Match

Every September there is a big school festival with lots of activities like dancing, cheerleading, school theatre, basketball, games and music at our school. But the highlight of the last afternoon is always the football match between the teachers and the pupils. It is so popular because the pupils win every year. But in 2011 it was different.

When the teachers came onto the field most people started to laugh. The team looked funny: white legs, no or grey hair, big stomachs ... There was only one player who was small and thin, but strong and very fit. He was the new English assistant David.

Mr. Winter was the captain, but he was not a good player and fouled a lot. Soon David shot the 1-0. Then Jonas scored for the pupils and it was 1-1. But David scored his second goal. What a shame! The pupils did not know what to do, how to stop the teachers. Toni thought he could stop David. He was strong, tall and he was a kick boxer. At the beginning of the second half Toni ran towards David and crashed into him. Toni was hurt and two people carried him off the field.

At the end of the match it was still 2-1 for the teachers and Paul had the ball. The goal was in front of him but it wasn't easy because David followed him. Everybody around him shouted. Paul kicked the ball and – missed. The ball flew past the goal and the match was over.

After the match everybody wanted to know why David could play so well. My friend knew the answer. David had played for an English club before he came to Germany. It is a famous club and very good – David had played for Manchester United.
