I Champion swimmer

Read the article from the "Wellington Herald".

Then fill in the champion's fact file.

Wellington. Sixteen-year-old Helen Pearson from New Zealand is a champion swimmer. She started swimming at the age of four and she has won many competitions since then.

Helen has a lot of talent. She is a member of the New Zealand national swimming team. It is her dream to take part in the Olympic Games in London in 2012.

Swimming is her life, but she has other hobbies, too, like reading, music and playing tennis. She practises swimming for three to four hours before school and does a workout at the gym from Monday to Friday. In the afternoons she goes to school.

So there isn't much time for her friends. Her best friend, Heather, is in the swimming club, the Wellington Flying Dolphins, too.

Later Helen wants to teach PE at her former school in Wellington.
