| To:   | Olivia                                 |
| Subject:  | Breaking News                          |
| Dear Olivia Time flies, the weekend is over. I was surprised when you called me yesterday afternoon. I'm sorry, I didn't have much time to talk to you on the phone. Let me tell you why. Imagine, my aunt and uncle stayed with us for the weekend. Nothing special, you'll say, but this visit was different. Uncle Tobias and Aunt Yasmin live abroad. They left Germany because they found good jobs in Stockholm and moved to Sweden before Christmas. My uncle is a doctor and my aunt is a nurse. They work at a hospital and are very good at English. Almost everyone understands it there. In the evenings they study Swedish and now they can speak the language quite well. Living in Sweden is really exciting, they say. The climate is a bit different from ours. They like the winter although it's often cold and cloudy. Now, in June, the weather is pleasant, the sun is shining and the temperatures are about 20 degrees Celsius. But, they added, the city is really crowded, because it's the high season: temperatures are the warmest and daylight lasts the longest, so all the public places are full of tourists. Guess what! I'll be one of them soon because Uncle Tobias and Aunt Yasmin invited us to their house. We're going to fly to Stockholm in my summer holidays. Wonderful! My mother wants to see "ABBA – The Museum". She is mad about ABBA and went to the musical MAMMA MIA twice. Have you been to this show in London? You live near the theatre, don't you? What are your plans for the summer? Have you ever visited Scandinavia? Hope to hear from you soon. Sophia |  |
