Teil B: Language in Use, Reading Comprehension, Mediation and Writing

I Reading Comprehension

Read the following text from a school newspaper where a student talks about the school's last Spring Ball. Then answer the questions below. You needn't write complete sentences.

Spring Ball: A Night of Dancing and Celebration

Every year, most British schools hold a special event called the Spring Ball. It's a fun and exciting night for students to come together and celebrate. The ball usually takes place in our gym, but this year we came together in a nice hotel. There was also a special motto: it was "Black & Gold"! So the boys wore nice black suits and the girls wore beautiful golden dresses. We all looked amazing!

When we arrived at the hotel, there was a red carpet outside. We stepped on it, and everyone cheered and took selfies before we went inside. Music played all night, and everybody danced to their favourite songs and had a great time.

Students could enjoy a buffet dinner and had fun trying delicious foods and nice drinks. This year, there was a special drink. It was called "the Golden Raven". It was a mixture of pineapple and lemon juice and it had black glitter in it! It really looked fantastic!

Throughout the night, there were different activities for everyone. We had a small contest where students showed their best outfits. Teachers or classmates chose the nicest dress or suit. They got a crown and some flowers, and their photo was put on the school website. Normally a tombola offers fantastic prizes but this year we did not have one.

At the end of the ball, everyone returned to the dance floor to sing one last song together. It was a night full of laughter and joy.

1 Where do the students normally celebrate?

2 What clothes did the students put on this year?

3 What was different about this year's ball? (Name two.)

4 What did the students do in front of the hotel? (Name one.)

5 How could the students win something?

6 How did the ball finish?
