3 Buy Nothing Day

In the following text, five word groups are missing. Below the text you will find eight possible phrases to fill into the gaps. Write down the correct numbers in the spaces provided.

At the end of November each year () many people in North America, the United Kingdom, Finland, Sweden and more than fifty other countries celebrate 'Buy Nothing Day'. They want to protest against consumerism (). For 24 hours these people try to buy absolutely nothing and to spend no money at all.

With their slogan "Buy less, live more" they meet on that day for different activities. Some people have street parties (); others go on zombie walks around shopping malls or talk to buyers to explain what 'Buy Nothing Day' is.

Another useful idea is the 'Buy Nothing Clothes Exchange' which began more than twenty years ago. During the month of November volunteers collect warm clothes (). On 'Buy Nothing Day', anyone who needs warm winter clothes is welcome to choose something without paying.

Could your family live for a day without buying anything? What would you do instead? How about a hike () or spending time with your friends? Would that make a good day for you, too?

8. which she puts in big bags

4 Out in the countryside

Fill in the missing letters. There is one line for each letter or apostrophe.

My family and I live on a farm, way out of town. Each weekend is the same old story: because everything is so far from the house, we either need to organise all our activities ahead of time or be extra creative and find things to do without needing to go far away.

Luckily, I have siblings to keep me company. My sister likes playing soc__ __ __ and also enj__ __ __ cooking, but it __ __ not easy t__ work with h__ __ in the kit__ __ __ when you do__ __ __ know what y__ __ are doing. O__ the other ha__ __, my brother pref__ __ __ artistic activities li__ __ painting and dra__ __ __; the only sp__ __ __ he really lo__ __ __ is dancing. Some__ __ __ we play aro__ __ __ in the fie__ __ __ together, spending wh__ __ __ afternoons running thro__ __ __ the crops and yelling like crazy! Those moments are my favourite, they are simple and always bring a good laugh for the three of us.

And if we're extra lucky, our parents are available to take us as a family, either into town for a film at the cinema or for a meal with some relatives. As they say: the more, the merrier!

6 Mediation

You are into creative things and your school offers the following free time activity. Your British exchange partner can't understand all the information about the activity and asks you for help. Answer his questions in English.

Neu ab März - der Koch - und Backklub

Hallo Leute,

wolltet ihr nicht schon immer mal eure Eltern, Großeltern oder Freunde mit etwas Besonderem überraschen? Wie wäre es mal mit Plätzchen, einem leckeren Kuchen oder eurer Lieblingseisorte? Natürlich alles selbstgemacht. Das ist gar nicht so schwer und ihr werdet erstaunte Reaktionen ernten.

Wir würden euch gern beweisen, dass Kochen und Backen gar nicht so schwierig sind- wenn man weiß wie es geht. Wir zeigen es euch gern. Unser Kurs ist für alle kochfreudigen zwischen 12 und 14 Jahren und findet jeden Dienstag von 15-17.30 Uhr im Jugendzentrum statt. Bei jedem Treffen wird ein neues Gericht ausprobiert, ihr könnt gern auch eure Ideen mitbringen.

Es gibt natürlich auch eine Schnupperstunde am 03.03. Wir beginnen mit dem Backen von Brownies, wer mag die nicht? Und das Beste - wir brauchen nur zwei Zutaten!

Das glaubt ihr nicht? Na dann lasst es euch zeigen.

Wenn ihr euch dann entscheidet, eure Familie zum Geburtstag oder zu Weihnachten mit einer selbstgemachten Köstlichkeit überraschen zu wollen, dann werdet Mitglied in unserem Koch- und Backklub.
