I Reading Comprehension

Read the following text. Then answer the questions. You needn't write complete sentences.

Back to school

It was the first day after the summer holidays. The students were really excited because they could see their friends again! The bell rang, and all the students ran inside.

In the classroom, Mr. Brown, the maths teacher, didn't know how to use the interactive whiteboard. "Is this thing on?" he asked. The students laughed. But Eric helped him and the lesson could start.

In the science room, Mrs. Green showed the pupils a fun experiment. She mixed two materials and suddenly there was a lot of smoke! "Oops, I think that was magic!" she laughed. The students clapped, "This is like a Harry Potter movie."

In the gym, Mr. White was ready for sports. The students played basketball and ran around. They laughed and had a lot of fun. "Good job, everyone!" said Mr. White.

In the art room, Miss Blue gave the students paper and paint. "Make a picture about your summer holidays," she said. The students painted beaches, mountains, and parks. Miss Blue was happy with their work. "Beautiful pictures!" she said.

At lunchtime, the cafeteria was busy. The students talked about their holidays. "I went to the zoo!" said Anna. "I learned to swim!" said Tom. The lunch lady, Mrs. Cook, gave them sandwiches and fruit. Everyone enjoyed their lunch.

Finally, the school day ended. Everyone went home with big smiles. The teachers were happy too. They were ready for a new year!
