

Task 2: Possible Answers

	Ground Zero	Statue of Liberty
Location within New York City:	Manhattan	Liberty Island in Upper New York Bay
Things to do:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - visiting the 9/11 memorial - visiting exhibitions in the museum - looking at the survival tree 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - audio tour on Liberty Island - visiting exhibitions of the Statue of Liberty museum - walking through the park - going up the Crown
One interesting fact about the sight (history or fun fact):	- remembers the terrorist attacks of September 11th	- Statue of Liberty was a present by the French
Admission and opening times:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - admission is 24 dollars per ticket - daily from 7:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 26 dollars for adults, 16 dollars for children - opens daily

	Times Square	Coney Island
Location within New York City:	Manhattan (Midtown)	Brooklyn
Things to do:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - watching plays in of the Broadway theatres - looking at the famous electronic billboards - go shopping - visiting cinemas 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - visiting the amusement park with all its attractions (Cyclone Rollercoaster etc.) - having lunch at hot-dog and pizza stands - swimming at Coney Island Park

		- visiting festivals and concerts
One interesting fact about the sight (history or fun fact):	- every year there is the famous Times Square Ball Drop at New Year's Eve	- a lot of parades can be watched here i.e. The Annual Mermaid Parade
Admission and opening times:		- opens every day at noon and stays open till the next morning - admission depends on the activity someone would like to do there e.g. Coney Island Park: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adults and children over 8 - $17.95; • Children under 8 - $9.5

	New York Aquarium	Brooklyn Bridge and Park
Location within New York City:	Brooklyn	Brooklyn
Things to do:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - watching shows at the Aquatheatre - visiting the PlayQuarium (here you transform into sharks, sardines etc. and experience an interactive tour through the ocean) - seeing the mighty sharks and learn about the maritime wildlife - experiencing a show at the 4-D Theatre 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - having a Brooklyn Bridge tour by bike or on foot - walking through the gardens - having a picnic in the park
One interesting fact about the sight (history or fun fact):	- the New York Aquarium houses up to 8000 underwater creatures	- it took fourteen years to build the bridge; after its opening it was supposed to be the longest bridge in the world and people

		claimed it would be the eighth wonder of the world
Admission and opening times:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - admission is 22 dollars for adults and $ 17.95 for children - opens every day at 10:00 a.m. and closes at 4:30 p.m. - (last entry is 3:00 p.m.)

	Rockefeller Center
Location within New York City:	Manhattan
Things to do:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - visiting the Observation Deck of the Rock - going on a shopping tour - having lunch or dinner in one of the various restaurants and bars - enjoy a guided tour
One interesting fact about the sight (history or fun fact):	- the New York Aquarium houses up to 8000 underwater creatures
Admission and opening times:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - admission is free; only exception is the admission for the Observation Deck ($38 for adults and $32 for children - Observation deck opens every day from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m.